

Program Geovekst meeting, September 18th - 19th, 2013

Location: Geodelta, Oude Delft 175, Delft

Wednesday, September 18th

Office open from 08.30 AM
09.00 - 09.15 hr	Welcome at Geodelta	Robert Kroon
09.15 - 12.15 hr	GEOVEKST meeting
12.15 - 13.30 hr	Lunch at Stadskoffiehuis Delft (300 metres form the office)
13.30 - 16.30 hr	GEOVEKST meeting
16.45 - 17.45 hr	Historic walk through Delft (guided tour)
17.45 - 18.00 hr	A drink in Café De Oude Jan (100 metres form the office)
19.30 - 22.00 hr	Dinner at Restaurant Van der Dussen

Thursday, September 19th

Office open from 08.30 AM
09.00 - 09.30 hr	Welcome and introduction An overview of Geodelta's services with respect to quality control of geo-data.	Robert Kroon
09.30 - 10.00 hr	GEOVEKST An introduction to GEOVEKST, the norwegian national programme for reference data cooperation	Hildegunn Norheim
10.00 - 10.30 hr	From GBKN to BGT	Martin Peersmann
10.30 - 11.00 hr	Coffee break
11.00 - 11.30 hr	Quality Control of photogrammetric data A description of a quality control flow to minimize the risk that companies deliver products which do not fullfill specified requirements	Robert Kroon
11.30 - 12.00 hr	Quality Control of LIDAR data A description of a quality control flow to minimize the risk that companies deliver products which do not fullfill specified requirements	Gerbrand Vestjens
12.00 - 12.30 hr	Discussions
12.30 - 14.00 hr	(Walking) lunch at Geodelta, discussions and demos
14.00 - 14.30 hr	Quality Control of reference data supplied by public organizations In The Netherlands existing large scale Standard Maps of The Netherlands (GBKN) of municipalities, railway authorities, waterboards and many other public organizations will serve as input for the new statutory national topographic geo-register. BGT. How can the present quality of these maps be checked?	Bertram Bourdrez
14.30 - 15.00 hr	Summary of sessions and discussion
15.00 - 15.30 hr	Closing drink at Geodelta before leaving Delft	